January - February 2026

January Demonstration Canceled

Due to low turnout in previous years and the potential for inclement weather this year, the January Demo has been canceled in 2026. If attendance to our demonstrations improves in the future and an interest in the January demo is expressed, the Board will consider reinstating the January demo. Let us know.

February Demonstration Hillary Scott

Wednesday, February 11, 2026 at 7:30 P.M.

Guild Hall, First Congregational Church (middle side door), Sanborn Street, Reading

Our demonstrator is Hillary Scott. Hillary will be demonstrating her oil landscape technique.

Hillary Scott is an academically trained landscape painter from northeast Massachusetts. She earned her BFA from UMass Lowell (2002) in studio art with a concentration in illustration. She illustrated books for many years before making the transition to landscape painting in 2014. Hillary has an affinity for coastal scenes, wetlands, and skies and finds endless inspiration in the beautiful New England landscape.

Hillary talks about her technique in a recent Youtube video, which you can find by clicking HERE.

You don't want to miss seeing this marvelous artist in person.

You can see some of Hillary's work at her website <https://www.hillaryscottfineart.com/>

President's Message

Hi Everyone,

I hope you all had a wonderful and blessed holiday season.

We have some exciting demonstrations coming up, starting on Wednesday February 11th, 2026 at 7:30 p.m., oil painter Hillary Scott will be sharing her awe inspiring plein air paintings. We have Caleb Stone in March and Leslie Scott-Lyson in April.

Our Spring Exhibit is just around the corner in May 1st and 2nd which will also include The Garden Club's "Art in Bloom".

I would like to thank the RAA Board, Rosie Palmer, Lou Doto, Brian Kimerer, Holly Popeo, and Kim Ramsey.

Reading Art Association is volunteer driven. We are still in need of help with setting up and breaking down the exhibits. We also have some committee positions open as well. If you are interested in volunteering, please let a board member know.

Reading Art Association is rich in tradition and continues to thrive because of YOU, our members. I am looking forward to what the future holds as we keep the history and tradition alive.

Message From Your Newsletter Editor

You may have noticed that the January demonstration is still canceled as well as the December demonstration. The reason for the cancellation is low turnout for those demonstrations. It takes considerable planning and effort to host each of our demos, and having nobody attend is a disappointing outcome.

We think that low turnout is due to the busy holiday season and the threat of inclement weather. Regardless, we deemed it wise to refrain from a demonstration in January. Let us know if you have any ideas on how to plan the RAA season better.

We Need Volunteers

As Rick said in his message, the Reading Art Association is being run by a half dozen intrepid individuals, Kim, Lou, Rosie, Rick, Holly, and Brian. It is a lot of work for few hands. As these few people get older, it becomes more difficult for us to continue putting on the programs that RAA is known for. We are in danger of losing the association from lack of participation by the membership.

Please give some thought to volunteering as a chair or at least helping out with the setup and/or takedown of the shows.

Regarding Dues for 2025/2026

In recent years, we had returned to the system of having everyone pay dues in September. However, our treasurer has decided to go back to the system of making dues due on the anniversary of your most recent payment. So if you last paid your dues in November, your next dues come due in November, of the following year, not in September.

You can now pay your dues using Paypal. There is a link on the main page of the website.
